

FREE SEMINAR

Iona-McGregor Fire District - Station 4

Featuring Topics on Tactics, Leadership and the Future of the Fire Service

September 28 & 29, 2006 • 0900 - 1600 hrs

Tactical Firefighting: What Every Officer Needs To Know

September 28 • 1400 hours

THE FIRE SERVICE AND WHY IT NEEDS TO CHANGE

Presented by: PETER HAYDEN

Peter Hayden is Chief of Department FDNY. As Incident Commander he led the initial rescue and recovery operations in the World Trade Center. After that, he served as Assistant Chief-of-Operations and as FDNY project manager for the McKinsey Report recommendations, which included increasing departments preparedness for future terrorist and complex, large scale incidents. His previous assignments include Chief of Safety and Division Commander.

September 28 • 0900 - 1400

• RAPID INTERVENTION TEAM - OFFICERS SIZE UP

A key component of firefighter survival

• WOW! THAT WAS CLOSE!

Identifying close call scenarios at residential and strip mall fires, with emphasis on the officers need to recognize fireground perils. Also, examining "Fireground Lessons Learned"/

• AGGRESSIVE PRIMARY SEARCH

Focusing on Commands considerations of behavioral objects and techniques for the rescue of trapped children

Presented by: DAN NOONAN

Dan Noonan retired from FDNY and is a Fire Technology Instructor in San Diego, CA. Featured Speaker, FDIC East and West. Former facilitator at Command School. Featured speaker Firehouse World and Firehouse Expo. FDIC Executive Advisory Committee, Presenter NYC Burn Center Institute at FDNY Academy.

September 29 • 0900 - 1600

FIREFIGHTING OPERATIONS IN GARDEN APARTMENTS, TOWNHOUSES AND HIGH RISES and

SUCCESSION PLANNING: WHAT WILL YOUR LEGACY BE?

Presented by: JOHN NORMAN

John Norman is a Deputy Assistant of Chief with FDNY. He is Chief in Charge - Special Operations Command (SOC). Chief Norman served as Search and Rescue Manager for the World Trade Center operations. Former Captain Rescue I. Contributing editor Firehouse Magazine, National Lecturer, and former Chief of Inwood, NY Volunteer FD. Chief Norman authored the best selling book, Fire Officers Handbook of Tactics.

R.S.V.P. to Michelle (239) 433-0660 to attend one day or both days